The first meeting of 2012 of the Jacksonville-Northeast Florida Section of the American Society for Quality will be held on Thursday, January 19. Our featured speaker will be Sheriff John Rutherford, of the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office.

Did you know that the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office is one of the country's leading Lean law enforcement agencies? Its use of Lean has resulted in a safer Jacksonville and better use of our tax dollars. Join us on the 19th to hear Sheriff Rutherford discuss how Lean has touched our lives in many ways through better law enforcement. Hear how streamlining the JSO's processes led to such improvements as better offender tracking, more effective vehicle towing, and more efficient public records requests. And learn ways in which you can create a climate of achievement at your own organization.

This is one you won't want to miss! Here are the details of the meeting:
