

To all our outstanding ASQ 1506 members...

Please join us on Thursday, March 17, for dinner and a dynamic presentation by Jeff Lackey, asking the question, “How’s the Quality of Your Health Process?”

It’s a great question to ask! This presentation will address a simple way to monitor your personal health using simple process tracking mechanisms/tools with which all quality professionals should be familiar - something he has taken to heart since having a stroke and retiring nearly five years ago. Jeff has many years of experience in the fields of Quality and Statistical Analysis, and is an engaging speaker, guaranteed to provide an interesting evening with valuable takeaways!
